This Cookies Policy (the "Policy") outlines how Daman Markets uses and collects cookies to provide our clients ("you") with a more relevant and effective experience when you use our website (www.damanmarkets.com) ("Website"). In some cases, we may use cookies to collect personal data or information that becomes personal data if we combine it with other information. This Policy should be read in conjunction with our Privacy Policy which explains how we process personal data collected through cookies and similar technologies.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files sent to or accessed by your web browser which enable you to navigate our online services and features. Cookies sit on your device and make themselves known to us when you access online services such as our Website. We see how you as our returning user navigate our services on different occasions and what content you might be interested in. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

Information About Our Use of Cookies

Our Website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users. This helps us to provide you with an enhanced experience when you browse our Website and allows us to improve our site, including to:

- Provide you with our services, which is not possible without certain essential cookies;
- Remember functional details such as your settings and preferences to improve your experience, speed up your searches and recognise you when you return to our service;
- Understand our online traffic through analytics tools; and
- Personalise our marketing and advertising by creating an advertising profile.

To accomplish this, we may also link information from cookies with personal data held about you.

We use the following cookies:

Strictly necessary cookies:

These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our Website. Without these cookies, services you have asked for (such as access to secure areas) cannot be provided.

These cookies are set only where they are required to meet Daman Market's technical requirements for security and site stability, and they cannot be disabled or opted out of for safety reasons. These cookies will not gather any information about you that could be used for marketing or remembering where you have been on the internet. This category cannot be disabled.

Analytical/performance cookies:

These cookies allow us to recognize and count the number of visitors to our Website and to see how visitors move around our Website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our Website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

These cookies are not used by Daman Markets to target you with online advertising. Without these cookies we are unable to learn how our Website is performing and make relevant improvements that could improve your browsing experience.

Functionality cookies:

These are used to recognize you when you return to our Website. This enables us to personalize our content for you, greet you by name, and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

These can also be used to remember log-in details, changes you have made to text size, font, and other parts of pages that you can customize to enhance your browsing experience. They ensure that your preferences are retained to provide a more consistent and user-friendly interaction with the Website.

Targeting cookies:

These cookies record your visit to our Website and browsing habits, the pages you have visited, and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our Website, and the advertising displayed on it, more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with selected third parties for this purpose.

Third party cookies:

Other third parties (including, for example, advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services) may also use cookies over which we have no control. Daman Markets does not control and is not responsible for how third parties collect, use, or secure data through their cookies. You should review the privacy policies of the relevant third-party providers to understand how they process and protect your information. These cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies or targeting cookies.

Acceptance And Modification Of Cookie Settings

By continuing to browse the Website, you are agreeing to our use of strictly necessary cookies. Upon your first visit to our Website, we present a cookie banner that allows you to accept all cookies, reject non-essential cookies, or customize your cookie preferences. You can update your consent settings at any time via the “Consent Preferences” link available on the Website.

Disabling Cookies

You may disable cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if your browser settings are set to block all cookies (including essential cookies) you may not be able to access all or parts of our Website.

If you have disabled one or more cookie categories, we may still use information collected from existing cookies, but we will stop using the disabled cookies to gather any further information. You can delete existing cookies from your browser.
Please note that while cookies are intended to improve the performance, stability, and functionality of our Website, the Website is provided on an as is basis and we are not liable for any malfunctions, degraded performance, or reduced user experience that may result from your choice to disable some or all cookies.
You should also be aware that Daman Markets is not responsible for any failure of your browser or device to correctly implement Do Not Track signals, cookie blocking settings, or other privacy preferences. The effectiveness of these features depends on your browser and device settings, which are outside our control. For more information about cookies visit: http://www.allaboutcookies.org

Updates To This Cookies Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legal, technical, or operational requirements. When we update our Policy, we will publish the updated Policy on the Website and take appropriate measures to inform you consistent with the significance of the changes we make.
